

CHRISTOPH STRASSER

Co-CEO/CIO

About:

If one had to describe Christoph in one word, it would be: passionate. The Austrian's heart beats for winter sports, green energy technologies and the company that, with the help of the latter, is accelerating the energy transition and thus helps protect our climate, nature, and snowy peaks: Tion Renewables AG.

Already at J.P. Morgan, the purpose-driven critical thinker was engaged in the energy sector by working on transactions in the utility and renewables space in the size of several billion dollars. At J.P. Morgan, Christoph also met Martin, with whom he has now been successfully managing Tion for more than three years.
